A Brief Historical Sketch Of Wintergreen OFWB

- The Wintergreen OFWB church was founded in 1882 on land that was given by Haywood Daugherty. The Reverend Robert F. Daugherty was her First pastor. Among the charter members were Sidney Heath McCoy, Haywood and Susan Daugherty, Redden and Lizzie Wood, Hutch and Frances Heath, Fred and Betty Heath, Cullen Daugherty, and Robert and Caroline Daugherty.

- The church building was completed in autumn, and while some of the ladies were working in the church yard, they noticed the beautiful mossy green background; hence, the perfect name for the church, Wintergreen.
the original church was enlarged once and in 1936 was moved 1/4 mile south of the original site
- The present church building was started on in 1936 and the addition of Sunday School rooms were in 1947. In the beginning, worship services were only held once a month, and in March of 1951 the church moved to half time services with worship twice a month.
- Some important dates to remember are :
 - 1955- Fellowship hall built.
 - 1961- Land given for the cemetery by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith.
 - 1969- More Sunday School rooms began. The work was completed in 1970. - 1970 In August went to full time service
 - 1973- The Parsonage was built on land given by Hubert Daugherty.
 - 1976- The church was remodeled and enlarged with new air, heat, and Baptistery.
 - 1990- The parking lot was paved.
 - 1991- The Women of the church remodeled the Fellowship hall.
 - 1992- New carpet and heating unit installed in the church.
- A few of the more recent pastors are The Rev. M.C. Prescott, Rev. G.C. Joyner, Rev. N.D. Wiggs Sr., Rev. Sam Kennedy, Rev. E.E. Edwards, Rev. Philip Rice, Rev. W.S. Burns, Rev. J.B. Starnes, Rev. Don Venable, Rev. Bobby Brown, Rev. Donald Walston, Rev. Mike Scott, Rev. Joe Myrick, And the current pastor Neal Cox.
